History Curriculum Journey—Leadership

Rickmansworth Park JMI School

Reception

I have listened to stories about Kings and Queens

I know that the King of England is King Charles III

Year 1

I know that he first ever teddy was named after Teddy Roosevelt, who was the President of the USA.

I know that when my parents were children Queen Elizabeth II was the Queen of England

Year 2

I know that King Charles II was the King of England when the Great Fire of London started.

Year 3

I can explain that during the Stone Age there were no leaders

I can explain that during the iron Age Kings led tribes and would fight with rivals

I can explain that Rome was ruled by Emperors and Julius Caesar and Claudius invaded Britain

Year 4

I can explain that the ancient Greeks had councils (Birthplace of democracy) and citizens believed that Greek Gods were powerful.

I can explain that the ancient Egyptians were ruled by a King (Pharaoh) but in the name of god

Each city-state ruled itself. They had their own governments, laws and army.

Year 5

I can explain that early Anglo-Saxon Britain was made up of many different tribes, with their own leaders, chiefs and king, then at the beginning of the 7th century, there were seven major kingdoms: Northumbria, Mercia, East Anglia, Wessex, Kent, Essex and Sussex

I know about King Alfred and his success.

I know that Edward the Confessor was the last Anglo-Saxon king of England.

Year 6

I can explain that 900 CE, villages joined together and came under the rule of a dynasty of kings called the Ogisos.

I can explain that after 1180 CE, a new line of kings called the Obas began to rule. They were very powerful and people treated them like gods.

Year 7

I will learn why William the Conqueror was victorious at the Battle of Hastings and why he was able to maintain control after his conquest