Autumn Term 22/10/26

Newsletter

Half term already!

It is hard to believe that we have already reached the half term break. What a busy few weeks we have had! The weather has been so warm that the autumn feels barely upon us this year. After the half term break, we will be welcoming our new Headteacher, Laura Richter. In the coming weeks and months there will be plenty of opportunities to meet her. Take a look at the school calendar for events coming up. The term becomes very busy towards Christmas.

Thank you for the incredible generosity shown in the donations you sent in for Harvest. The Rickmansworth food bank emailed us:

"Dear everyone, please pass on our thanks to all the children, staff & parents for the huge amount donated from your harvest collection - an amazing amount. Bless you all in supporting the foodbank".

Learning about bread

Children in Reception have been looking at breads 'around the world', linked to the story of The Little Red Hen.

They have enjoyed looking, tasting, feeling, smelling and drawing the different breads. They have also enjoyed making their own bread in class.

Author visit

KS1 children really enjoyed meeting author Alex Milway. The session was fun and interactive.

Football friendlies

Our Y5 and Y6 football team took part in a number of friendly fixtures at Little Green last week, in preparation for the league.

Mr Tees as you have never seen him before!

Our music teacher, Euan Tees has recently written, recorded and created a music video for a song about the Great British Bake Off. It is a catchy little number that he shared with Y5 and Y6. They had a discussion and Q&A session about the process of composing, recording and making music videos. It was a fun part of the lesson. Take a look for yourselves:

Shakespeare

Y5 and Y6 enjoyed watching and participating in Young Shakespeare's production of Macbeth.
